

EXPERIMENT 6 DISCRETE TIME CONVOLUTION

DATE:

Write a Scilab/MATLAB function `convolution()` which takes input arguments as two signal vectors and their sample indices. The function returns the vector containing convolution sum of two signals and sample index vector. Write a test bench program to use this function, plot the three signals and give proper title and labels.